

OUR

PROJECTS

EVENT

FILMS

Axial Cut Studio crafted the launch film for Buddhadeb Dasgupta Memorial Trust's YouTube debut on International Women's Day, featuring their Human Rights Day program with the U.S. Consulate, "Is Your Best Friend Abused?".

Axial Cut Studio presents the complete programme by Buddhadeb Dasgupta Memorial Trust, in partnership with the Forum for Film Studies and Allied Arts—an evocative tribute to the poet of Indian cinema, uniting artists and admirers to honour his life, legacy, and timeless vision.

A masterclass by renowned cinematographer Asim Bose, exploring the visual grammar, light, silence, movement, and distinctive cinematic language he built over decades with Buddhadeb Dasgupta.

NGO

FILMS

Axial Cut Studio presents a powerful docu-fiction capturing the alarming decline of freshwater in the Sundarbans and the rising sea levels that trigger devastating floods and reshape the region's geography—an urgent story of survival and changing landscapes.

Axial Cut Studio crafted a narrative film for JGVK, introducing a responsible tourism experience in the Sundarbans—connecting visitors to village realities and JGVK's nation-building work. The project also highlights their new resort at Vivekananda Shiksha Niketan, offering modern, comfortable accommodation for an immersive stay.

Axial Cut Studio crafted the launch film for Buddhadeb Dasgupta Memorial Trust's YouTube debut on International Women's Day, featuring their Human Rights Day program with the U.S. Consulate, "Is Your Best Friend Abused?".

In Episode 1 of Delta Widows, Axial Cut Studio uncovers the stark realities of Sundarbans families who have lost loved ones to the forests. This opening chapter sets the emotional foundation of the series—an intimate look at grief, survival, and the silent strength of the women known as the Delta Widows

In Episode 2 of our documentary series Delta Widows, Axial Cut Studio journeys deeper into the Sundarbans—revealing the intimate, unseen battles of families living at the edge of nature's power. A raw and human portrayal of resilience shaped by tides, loss, and the unforgiving forest.

SHORT & FEATURE

FILMS

Axial Cut Studio presents Chords From the Past, an international project shot in Austria. Selected at multiple global film festivals, the film was also featured on India's leading short-film platform, Pocket Films.

Our upcoming feature film Juddo Jahajer Kobita, produced under the Axial Cut Studio banner, has already won Best Debut Director at the Kodaikanal Film Festival along with multiple awards across other festivals.